

When Wisconsin enacted the No Call List as law, citizens within the state started to experience a better quality of life. Please allow our law to stand as written.